LIBRARY BOARD OF TRUSTEES
MINUTES

February 26, 2018

A meeting of the Escanaba Public Library Board of Trustees was held February 26, 2018 at 5:00 p.m. in Room C102 of the Escanaba City Hall/Library Complex, Escanaba, MI 49829.

PRESENT: Elizabeth Keller, Janice Hallett, Neil Hivala, Kathy Mason, Tammy Wiles, Peggy O'Connell Schumann, Council Liaison Carolyn Stacey, Library Director.

ABSENT: None

PUBLIC COMMENT: None

APPROVAL/CORRECTIONS(S) TO MINUTES: The minutes of January 22, 2018 were accepted on consensus.

APPROVAL/ADJUSTMENTS TO THE AGENDA: The agenda was accepted on consensus.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT:

Use Measures: Reviewed.

Financials: Reports current through December were reviewed.

Administration Two staff positions (Library Asst I, Library Asst II) are now vacant. Director is updating job descriptions and will advertise when complete. The library director is serving on the personnel committee for Superiorland Library Cooperative. Member libraries are eligible to appoint a Board member to the Superiorland Library Cooperative. Escanaba's position is available. This topic will be on the agenda for the next board meeting. The library director is working with faculty from MTU to develop a program for tutoring volunteers to work with older adults in the library on technology skills. The library director will attend the Small & Rural Libraries Conference on April 30th in Traverse City, with a stipend from Superiorland Library Cooperative.

Library Programs / Services

AARP is preparing taxes for seniors and low income taxpayers at the library by appointment.

The library will participate in the Michigan Notable Author Tour in May. The featured author will be Henrik Meijer, who has written the book, Arthur Vandenberg: The Man in the Middle of the American Century. The program is tentatively scheduled for May 23rd. The library observed February as Black History Month with a featured display and a bibliography. Saturday story hour featured the EHS French Club for February. Adult Services Librarian Monique Ciofu will present a workshop on programming with Skype at the staff development day for Bayliss Library staff in Sault Ste Marie on April 20th. The library will work with Pathways to highlight Disability Awareness Month in March.

A listing of programs confirmed for Spring and Summer has been included with the board packet.

Friends of the Library: The library director is working with the Friends publicity committee to update marketing goals and objectives for 2018. The next meeting of the Friends Board is Wednesday, March 14 at 7pm

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

A) City Budget 2018-19: The library director met with the city manager in February to review the library's budget submission. No changes were made. The director is making a request from the building authority fund for new flooring. Public work sessions on the budget are April 9th and 10th. No schedule has been set yet.

NEW BUSINESS:

A) Bezold Fund: Trustees reviewed interest revenues and expenditures over the life of the fund, as well as original documentation relative to the background and purpose of the fund. Trustees determined that there has been no erosion of the principal and that expenditures have been appropriate. Director will follow up on trustee's questions relative to investments and report back.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The next meeting will be Monday, March 26th at 5:00 p.m.

ADJOURNMENT: The meeting was adjourned at 5:52 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Approved

Ways to Give

Books and Collection Materials

The library welcomes your donations of books, movies, music and magazines. Please link to the Donation Guidelines for details.

Financial Gifts

The Friends of the Escanaba Public Library, a 501 (c3) accept financial contributions on behalf of the library. Honorary and memorial gifts, monetary donations, planned giving and an established fund with the Community Foundation for Delta County are all ways to give.

The library has developed a Wish List of services and items to assist donors who would like some suggestions on how to support the library.

For more information, please see the Library Gift & Donation Policy.

Additional Opportunities

The library participates in the Elmer's Community Care Rewards Program and Amazon Smile program. Business sponsorship and workplace matching gifts are welcome. Please call the library (906) 789-7323 to discuss.

How to Give

Donate Online

Donate

Or, write checks payable to the Friends of the Escanaba Public Library. You may mail your check (400 Ludington Street, Escanaba, MI 49829) or come in to discuss your wishes.

Donations to the Friends of the Escanaba Public Library are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. Donors giving $500 or more are recognized on the Donor Plaque inside the library.

Friends of the Library

In 1988, a group of library lovers and supporters joined together to establish the Friends of the Escanaba Public Library. With a dedicated board and countless volunteers, the Friends provide support to the Library in a number of ways. Through contributions from the public in the form of memorial and commemorative gifts, the Friends supplement the Library's regular budget with the purchase of books and special supplies.

Additionally, the Friends operate a used book sale room in the library. Donated and withdrawn materials from the library are for sale. All proceeds are put back into the library's collection.

The library has developed a handout with donation guidelines and helpful resources for other donation and recycling sites in the community.

For more information on the Friends or to make a contribution, please see the Ways to Give section of the Gifts and Donations page, or contact the Friends via friendsofescanabalibrary@gmail.com

How do the Friends support the library?

- The Friends sponsor a standing order for best-selling fiction, ensuring that the library receives the newest and most popular books automatically
- The Memorial Garden on the north side of the library was established and is maintained by the Friends
- The Summer Reading Club and other special children's activities are sponsored by the Friends

The Friends' Board meets in the Library at 6:00 p.m on the second Wednesday of each month, September through May.

For more information on the Friends or to make a contribution, please contact the Friends via friendsofescanabalibrary@gmail.com

Membership information is also available at the Library or you can download the membership form (PDF) online.

If you are interested in making a memorial gift to the Friends of the Escanaba Public Library you can download the memorial gift form (PDF) which can be printed and mailed.

Please contact library administration if you are interested in donating funds for any of the items on the wish list.

About the book

Arthur H. Vandenberg was appointed and later elected to the United States Senate in 1928, where he was an opponent of the New Deal and an isolationist who resisted efforts to aid European allies at the onset of World War II. After Pearl Harbor, Vandenberg soon recognized the need for unity and worked closely with Democratic administrations to build the strong bipartisan consensus that established the Marshall Plan, the United Nations, and NATO. Vandenberg's life and career offer powerful lessons for today, and Meijer has given us a story that suggests an antidote to our current democratic challenges. After reading this poignant biography, many will ask: Where is the Vandenberg of today?

University of Chicago Press, 2017

About the author

Hank Meijer is the executive chairman of Meijer Incorporated, a business he joined first as a grocery clerk. After serving as a reporter for a Detroit-area newspaper group, he became editor and later publisher of a weekly newspaper in Plymouth, MI. He rejoined Meijer in 1979 as assistant advertising director and has previously published a biography of Hendrick Meijer, the company's founder.
