DIRECTOR'S REPORT

1. Monthly Statistics
2. Financials
3. Administration Saturday hours will resume September 6th.

The annual meeting of the Superiorland Library Cooperative is scheduled for September 25th in Marquette. The agenda includes an address by Randy Riley, the new State Librarian and sessions on "maker spaces" in public libraries. The library director presented a talk entitled Public Libraries, an Evolving Story, to the Bay Sages at their July meeting. The director is preparing an annual report for FY 13-14 that will be presented to the City and Townships within the library's service area. Highlighted statistics from FY 13-14 are included with this board packet.

4. Library Programs & Services
Feedback from families on the new summer reading format was very positive. 426 children participated in the program this year; a 33% increase over last year.
Promotions are being planned for Library Card Sign-Up month in September.
A local/regional author fair is being planned for October 23rd.
